

As a law abiding citizen I hereby post my protest and opposition concerning the proposed "Broadcast Flag" regulation. This protest is posted on grounds of "fair use" and private consumption of television broadcast medium. The United States government does not have the authority to restrict my 'private' use of broadcast video or audio media nor grant control of personal computing equipment to other outside parties I have not granted permission to do so.